Experience

Content Manager

Lumanity – July 2021 - Present

I plan, write, and edit materials to support patient-advocacy programs related to oncology and rare disease. This includes articles, pamphlets, and presentations for patients, caregivers, and health care professionals.

Writer and Editor

Freelance/Contract – September 2008 - Present

With a focus on science, technology and health, I crafted articles for a variety of magazines, newspapers, and online publications. I've also created podcasts for Scientific American and edited a book about public policy mediation for the American Bar Association.

Teaching Instructor and Course Coordinator, Rutgers University
New Brunswick, NJ – 01/2017 - 06/2021

I developed and taught my own curriculum for several undergraduate courses related to writing, reporting, media law, and design. The new curriculum I created often included novel games to make abstract concepts concrete. After receiving multiple awards for innovative instruction, I was asked to coordinate 11 part-time lecturers. I helped them with both instructional design and technology challenges.

Online Managing Editor, MIT Technology Review
Cambridge, MA – 07/2006 - 06/2008

I carefully balanced long-term content strategy and planning, with the daily needs of editing copy and generating fresh story ideas. I led daily team meetings and planned new multimedia projects for the Website and supervised five writers.

Technology Reporter, Toronto Star
Toronto, ON, Canada – 09/2000 - 08/2006

As a staff reporter, I generated my own ideas and developed feature stories for the technology, health, business, and ideas sections of the newspaper. I also wrote a weekly column about the science and history of everyday products. While some articles took weeks to research, others needed to be researched and written in a matter of hours.

Interactive Producer, MSNBC
Redmond, WA – 02/1999 - 08/2000

As one of the first people to work in interactive online news, I developed original content for MSNBC.com, managing the work of writers, editors, photographers, and graphic designers. I also wrote traditional news stories for the health, technology, and international sections.
