- Profile With more than 20 years of experience in science writing, editing and education, I make complicated ideas accessible.
- Education
- Purdue University; West Lafayette, IN
Master of Science in Education, Learning Design and Technology, 04/2018 - 12/2019
- Massachusetts Institute of Technology; Boston, MA
Knight Science Journalism Fellowship, 08/2005 - 05/2006
- Ryerson University; Toronto, ON, Canada
Bachelor of Applied Arts, Journalism, 09/1993 - 06/1997
- Experience
- Content Manager
Guidemark Health – July 2021 - Present
I plan, write, and edit materials to support patient-advocacy programs related to oncology and rare disease. This includes articles, pamphlets, and presentations for patients, caregivers, and health care professionals.
- Writer and Editor
Freelance/Contract – September 2008 - Present
With a focus on science, technology and health, I crafted articles for a variety of magazines, newspapers, and online publications. I've also created podcasts for Scientific American and edited a book about public policy mediation for the American Bar Association.
- Teaching Instructor and Course Coordinator, Rutgers University
New Brunswick, NJ – 01/2017 - 06/2021
I redesigned and implemented new curriculum, including novel games that make abstract concepts concrete. After receiving multiple awards for innovative instruction, I was asked to coordinate 11 part-time lecturers. I helped them with both instructional design and technology challenges. I also taught several undergraduate courses including Information Design (UX), and Science and Health Reporting.
- Lecturer, Rutgers University
New Brunswick, NJ – 09/2015 - 12/2016
Developed and taught my own curriculum for the undergraduate course Media Ethics and Law, which covers a variety of US laws including those regarding prior restraint, defamation, privacy, and copyright. I also taught the undergraduate course Writing for Media, in which students learn how to write news articles, feature stories, press releases, and radio scripts.

Online Managing Editor, MIT Technology Review

Cambridge, MA – 07/2006 - 06/2008

I carefully balanced long-term content strategy and planning, with the daily needs of editing copy and generating fresh story ideas. I led daily team meetings and planned new multimedia projects for the Website and supervised five writers.

Technology Reporter, Toronto Star

Toronto, ON, Canada – 09/2000 - 08/2006

As a staff reporter, I generated my own ideas and developed feature stories for the technology, health, business, and ideas sections of the newspaper. I also wrote a weekly column about the science and history of everyday products. While some articles took weeks to research, others needed to be researched and written in a matter of hours.

Interactive Producer, MSNBC

Redmond, WA – 02/1999 - 08/2000

As one of the first people to work in interactive online news, I developed original content for MSNBC.com, managing the work of writers, editors, photographers, and graphic designers. I also wrote traditional news stories for the health, technology, and international sections.
